Dear Sir\Madam,

Re: Notification of truancy of your son \ daughter _____ from the

I hereby inform you that your son \ daughter _____, born _____, and duly registered in our school in grade _____, has not been attending class regularly \ is not attending class at all, starting from the date _____. Undoubtedly, this will cause significant educational harm to your son\daughter that can have a serious impact on his \ her development in the future.

Please contact the school administration immediately upon receiving this notice to clarify the matter and return your son \ daughter to regular class attendance without delay.

For your information, school truancy is a criminal violation under the Compulsory Education Law (5709-1949). Parents of a child or youth who is of compulsory education age must ensure that the child or youth attends a recognized educational institution on a regular basis. If the child or youth is truant from a recognized educational institution, each of his parents is subject to two months' imprisonment or a fine, unless he has proven beyond a reasonable doubt that he has done his utmost to ensure that the child or youth regularly attends a recognized educational institution.

Respectfully yours,

School Principal
